

JAIR STUDENTS' JOURNAL

The Jadavpur Association of International Relations has decided to publish a student magazine exclusively prepared by and for students.

The year 2014 marks the 20th anniversary of the Rwanda genocide. About one million Rwandans were killed in 100 days from April to July 1994 as the international political leaders remained a silent spectator. Even after twenty years of Rwandan genocide that sent a shock through our spines, the brutalities have not ceased as we confront again a similar situation that has left the so well articulated and oft quoted humanitarian values in doubt. Yes! We are talking of Gaza, the present cynosure of the international community. Centuries of conflict between the Arabs and Jews have unfolded into complex situation which is now beyond assertion over a piece of land or religious animosity, we would like to invite articles exploring, the different dimensions of the continuing crisis. The sub-themes to which you can relate your article are:

- Plight of women and children
- Refugee problem
- Strategic politics
- Child army
- Economic suffering and damage; also its impact on world economy
- International pressure
- Political interest

Others topics on which you may send articles:

- Rise of Renminbi.
- UN Development Goals.
- Boko Haram and its struggle to establish the Islamic State of Nigeria.
- ISIS and Iraq/ US involvement on Iraq.
- On Environment (left to the discretion of the individual).
- European Crisis and EU or the Crisis of the Welfare state.
- Russian strategies in Ukraine and how Putin's Russia will face the new economic sanctions from West.
- Quest for independence Scotland.

Rules and procedures for application.

Students from any discipline both from undergraduate and post graduate level can send their articles.

Word limit: 1000-1200 words for every article.

No hand written script will be accepted.

The script must be written using Microsoft word and will be accepted only in docx format.

References must be given following the Oxford style.

We expect you to express your personal analysis of the situation and opinion in the article.

Last date for abstract submission (Within 300 words): 2nd January, 2015

Last date for article submission: 20th January , 2015

Send your articles at or for any enquiries: mayuribanerjee@jair.net.in